APPROPRIATION REACHES $5,000

County Council Provides for Expense of Election and For Court House Repairs

$1,500 OF TOTAL FOR FORMER

Primary and Registration Cost $3,500, Balance in Fund Not Being Sufficient for Election

The county council appropriated a total of $5,000 at the special session late Saturday afternoon. Of this sum $1,500 is for election expense and $3,500 for court house repairs.

The election bills are not yet known and will not be until the county commissioners allow the claims. The bills for the various precincts are hardly alike and the commissioners will first have to determine how much each election official is entitled to and then allow all of them the same amount.

Some of the inspectors put in claims for as high as five days' service and others three and four days. It would not be fair to allow some more than others and for this reason the commissioners will strike a medium and then allow all of the officials the same amount.

The appropriation of $1,500 will probably more than cover the expense. Allowing $50 to the precinct the expense would run $1,550. The expense per precinct may be only $40 a precinct and it is almost certain not to be over $60.

The combined expense of the primary last March and the registration in October amounted to $3,300. The appropriation for elections was $3,500 so that the additional appropriation of $1,500 will more than cover the expense. The increased cost of the election to Rush county comes only because of the primary. In other years the registration has been figured in but this year the primary cost the county the additional sum.

The other appropriation made Saturday, that of $3,500 for court house repair, is for repairs at the power plant and for additional work on the court house roof. Part of this amount will go towards paying for the new roof on the tower. Other items include the cost for painting the clock, repairing the windows in the tower and the placing of new down spouts. All of this extra work was not included in the original contract. The total cost of the roof and work will be about $16,000. The original contract was $12,000.

NO NOTES TO BE WRITTEN, 'TIS SAID

Ambassador Gerard Will Carry Back to Berlin Last Word in Submarine Situation

MAY ENFORCE SUSSEX THREAT

(By United Press.)
Berlin, Nov. 27.—Ambassador Gerard will take back to Berlin next week America's last word in the submarine situation.

This will include word of the administration's plan to do no more note writing if there is any German violation of German submarine war pledges. He will be in position to inform the German authorities that the United States intends to carry out her Sussex note threat of breaking relations if violations arise.

Gerard today met Ambassador Bernstorff on a social matter.

STATE EXPENSE $70,937.38

Democratic Committee Files Statement in Indianapolis Today

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 27.—The total contributions to the democratic state central committee amounted to $70,937.38, according to the report filed with the Marion county clerk today. The expenditures have not been tabulated yet but it is said that they will approximately equal the receipts.

Crawford Fairbanks donated $2,500 and W. H. O'Brien $2,000.

TWO CHILDREN ARE MADE COURT WARDS

Son and Daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Hood May be Placed in the Odd Fellows Home

RUTH WIDAU GETS DIVORCE

Judge Sparks held a session of juvenile court this afternoon. Robert and Elizabeth Hood, children of Mrs. Myrtle Hood, held in jail on a charge of running a house of ill-fame, were made wards of the court. They were brought to the attention of the court as being neglected children. The girl is seven years old and the boy four years old. An effort will be made to place the children in the Odd Fellows home in Greensburg.

Judge Sparks was in Newcastle this morning on official business.

Late Saturday afternoon the court granted Mrs. Ruth Widau a divorce from John Widau upon payment of the costs. Mrs. Widau was given her maiden name of Ruth Joel.

CELEBRATION TO MIRROR OLDEN DAYS

Orange Will Hold a Centennial on December 9 in Connection With Teachers' Institute.

DIAPASON CHOIR TO SING

Plans are moving forward rapidly for the centennial to be held at Orange, December 9, which will be an all day affair. The teachers of the school have taken charge of the celebration but all the citizens of the community and township are taking an active part in making it a success. All of the township is to be represented and to take part.

The program, although not completed, will start with teachers institute in the morning; a patrons program in the afternoon when talks particularly for the patrons of the school will be given; and a program of episodes similar to a pageant in the evening. Phases of life in the past century will be represented in this exhibition. The diapason choir will sing, there will be an old fashioned music school, in fact every thing will mirror the olden times. A display of relics is being collected to be shown in the school house where all of the celebration will take place.

WILL HAVE JOINT SERVICE

The Methodist church of Falmouth and the Christian church of Fairview will have a joint Thanksgiving service Thursday morning at ten o'clock in the Fairview church. The Rev. Daniel Ryan of Glenwood will preach. That night he will preach at the Falmouth church.

—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cohee and family went to Indianapolis today for future residence.

CHURCH DEBT IS WIPE OUT

New Home of Christian Congregation at Milroy is Paid for by Additional Contributions

HOLD DEDICATION SERVICES

Structure Erected at Cost of $16,000—C. W. Cauble Delivers Two Sermons

The beautiful new Christian church at Milroy, erected at a total cost of $16,000 was dedicated yesterday with appropriate ceremonies taking place at an all-day meeting. The congregation is proud of its accomplishment, which in this case is unusual, for the new church is entirely paid for. Pledges amounting to $4,000 were made during the services yesterday wiping out the small debt incurred by reason of building the church.

Last spring when the congregation was contemplating the building of the church a canvass was made and resulted in the raising of $13,000. With this amount assured the trustees and officers of the church felt warranted in going ahead and the contract was let to Morris M. Winship of this city. The achievement is no small task and the church building stands out as a fine addition to the town of Milroy. The congregation moves into the new building, which is paid for and with a balance left in the treasury.

The dedicatory sermons were delivered by C. W. Cauble, of Indianapolis, state corresponding secretary of the Christian Missionary societies. Many visiting ministers were present at the afternoon service. A basket dinner was served at noon and was participated in by several hundred people. Special music was rendered at all services.

Services will be held at the church every night this week preparatory to a revival that will start next Monday. The Rev. C. M. Yocum of the Main Street Christian church will preach tonight and the Rev. F. Z. Burkett of Greensburg tomorrow night.

Many people from this city attended the dedication ceremonies.

REFUSE A SAFE CONDUCT

British Will Not Insure Safety of Austrian Ambassador to U. S.

(By United Press.)
London, Nov. 27.—It was officially announced today that the British government had refused a safe conduct for Count Tainowski, recently appointed Austro-Hungarian ambassador to United States.

A statement made to Ambassador Page by the British foreign office gave grounds for the refusal of safe conduct for the ambassador as being based on previous cases where diplomats accredited to central powers have not acted in an exclusive diplomatic capacity.

GIVE SUBMARINE WARNING

(By United Press.)
New York, Nov. 27.—Wireless flashes from British cruisers directed to all entente shipping in American waters warning them to be on the lookout for German submarines intensified reports here today of German submarines nearing the United States and preparing for wholesale raids on shipping. A rumor also reached New York that two submarines are near the New Hampshire coast. One of these is said to be the U-53 the submersible which sank five ships near Nan-

FOR BENEFIT OF ELKS CHARITIES

Round Table Festival Company Will Present Program of Artistic Specialities December 8

RUSSIAN DANCER IN CAST

Principal Features are Tenor Operatic Singing, Italian Harp Music and Interpretative Dancing

The Round Table Festival company, which will appear at the Graham Annex auditorium on Friday night, December 8, under the auspices of the Elks lodge, comes to Rushville with high recommendations from other cities in Indiana and with the endorsement of many of the state's leading citizens.

The Elks will use the sum derived from the program given by the company for their Christmas charity fund. Since its formation here, the Rushville chapter of the Elks lodge has always taken an active part in spreading Christmas cheer.

The Round Table Festival company, which presents a purely classical program, played in many of the larger cities in Indiana last season. It makes its appeal wholly from the standpoint of artistic specialities, the principal features of which are the aesthetic and interpretative dancing, Italian harp music, tenor operatic singing and dramatic reading. The star of the company's cast is Mlle. Lilla Meiro of Petrograd.

Rowena Cosner

Miss Cosner is a dramatic reader of wide experience. Her work is declared to be characterized by intensity, refinement and charm. Press comments from where she has appeared say that she arouses the enthusiasm of the audience and sustains the interest until the last. Miss Cosner combines a rich voice and a captivating presence with fine insight and dramatic appreciation, which makes her a finished reader.

The Round Table Festival company's program has the endorsement of Governor Ralston; State Superintendent of Public Instruction Charles A. Greathouse; Mrs. Felix T. McWhirter, former president of the Indiana Federation of Women's clubs; and the Rev. Allan B. Philpott, pastor of the Central Christian church, Indianapolis.

Izona May Shirley and Miss Hazel Fesler are assisting the Elks lodge this week in the advance sale of seats. Every seat in the auditorium will be reserved at the same price.

BASKETBALL COURT

For the benefit of his Sunday School class, the Little Hustlers, George Wiltse has installed a basketball court on the third floor of his Five and Ten Cent store where it is thrown open for the boys to play basketball. All the improvements necessary for the game have been installed.

DAMAGE JURY STILL OUT

One Which Heard Case Against Perrott Deliberated 66 Hours

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 27.—At noon today the jury trying the damage suit brought against Chief of Police Perrott and other police officers by Thomas Campbell, colored, for $25,000, was still deliberating after being locked up for 66 hours.

Campbell asked damages on the grounds that police prevented him from registering and consequently the loss of his vote at the last election. The jury has been out since Friday night at six o'clock.

CHIHUAHUA CITY STILL UNDER SIEGE

Attempted Storming of Northern Mexican Capital by Villa Under Progress Today

LOSSES REPORTED HEAVY

(By United Press.)

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 27.—That the attempted storming of Chihuahua City by an army of 4,000 bandits under command of Villa was still in progress today, was the declaration of United States department agents here. They based their statement upon the action of the Mexican government authorities in sending every Carranzista soldier available in northern Mexico to the relief of the besieged city.

In United States official circles it was stated that it was certain Chihuahua City was in a state of siege or messengers would have brought word to the border.

Losses in the four days fighting have been extremely heavy, one message saying that the streets were filled with dead and that it was impossible to aid wounded because of incessant firing.

WALL STREET WANTS THE WAR TO CLOSE

Diplomats at Washington Say Growing Decrease in Munition Contracts Arouses Fears

BIG LOANS MAY BE AFFECTED

(By United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 27.—Wall Street is anxious for the war to end, in the opinion of prominent diplomats here today.

Timidity over security for vast loans and a growing decrease in munition contracts is said to be responsible for the increasing financial desire for peace. The financiers are said to fear that their loans may be affected if Europe tries to pile up creditors while destroying more lives and property.

This feeling was called the inspiration for the recent peace talk in New York, by a high official today.

GENTRY BROS. SELL SHOW

(By United Press.)
Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 27.—A deal was closed here today by the Gentry Brothers for the sale of their circus to J. D. Newman and J. B. Austin for $100,000. The new purchasers were with the Gentry Brothers for 20 years.

STATE CELEBRATION

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 27.—A statewide celebration of the anniversary of the admission of Indiana into the union will be held on the night of December 11 at the state house, it was decided at a meeting of the Indiana Historical commission today.

INSPIRATION IN THIS CAMPAIGN

Fact That Rush County Was Second in Seal Sales in Its Division in 1915 Helpful in 1916

PENNANTS AWARDED AGAIN

But Basis is Different Because Contests are Between Villages, Cities and Towns

To finish second in their division last year with the sale of Red Cross Seals offers some inspiration for the Psi Iota Xi sorority girls who are this year again conducting the campaign in this city.

However, the contest this year is different than that last because it is based on cities and not counties. The change was made so as to enable small towns and villages other than county seats to share in the glory of competing for a prize.

Last year counties were placed in divisions according to population and a pennant awarded in each division. This year cities and towns are placed in divisions, likewise according to population, and the prize for each division will also be a pennant.

Rushville city will fall in the class with a population between 3,000 and 7,000. That is class four. Other towns in the county may contest for a prize in their respective classes. Class one is for towns and villages between 300 and 600. Any under 300 will have to compete in that class. The second class is for towns and cities of 600 to 1,200 and the third class from 1,200 to 3,000.

Vermillion county won the pennant in the class in which Rush county competed last year. This county was second, selling $115 worth of Seals. The sorority girls hope to equal that amount this year, although they will be confined to the city.

Heretofore, seventy-five per cent of the proceeds from the sale of Seals went back to the county in which they are sold, but this year seventy-five per cent of the sale will be returned to the community in which the Seals are purchased. This change means that Rushville will receive just three-fourths of the money spent in Rushville alone for Seals. The custom here is to turn all that over to the visiting nurse.

In past years, because the whole county supported the movement, it was felt that the visiting nurse belonged to the whole county and should answer calls outside Rushville. But now the plan has been changed, the visiting nurse will confine her work to Rushville alone and other communities may use their per cent of their sales any way they see fit.

Chorus Girl Falls For Leon Friedman of the Follies.

(By United Press.) New York, Nov. 27.—"A dazzling chorus of bright-eyed beauties," "an ocular symphony," "a whirl of gleeful curves," and other expressions denoting the last word in feminine charms were things Leon Friedman wrote for ten years as a mere matter of daily routine. He was press agent for the Ziegfield Follies.

But now its all different. It isn't casual any more. Its from the heart. For among the chorus girls was Grace Jones, slender blonde and all the regular stuff. Friedman fell. They are to be married Thanksgiving day.

Both are "thankfully thankful."

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

Thanksgiving.

From the time of the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers, Americans have been accustomed to set aside one day in the year wherein to review the past year and take stock of dealings of Providence with us as a people.

What was at first the spontaneous expression of grateful hearts soon became a custom, and as the years sped this custom became fixed, until today it assumes the sacredness of a permanent institution.

This season is again with us. The fruits of the board acres of our fair domain have been garnered in. The warehouses and granaries are fairly bursting with their contents and prosperity sits a guest at almost every fireside.

Our president and the governors of the various states have designated the day on which the people shall express to a bountiful Creator their gratitude for these blessings.

And to the many positive and material blessings which have been ours, there is added on this occasion the especial blessing that we as a people have escaped the madness that has fallen as a blight upon our neighbors and kinsmen across the waters. The magnitude of that blessing we cannot at this time begin to estimate.

But while we have these palpable blessings for which to be thankful, we have other things for which to express our gratitude, and these antedate and underlie our present happiness and prosperity, our peace and safety. We have to be thankful that back in the days when our nation was being born, a land of heroes, than whom the world has never produced greater, had impressed upon their hearts to lay the foundations of that nation upon the only possible true and last base—the Fatherhood of an omnipotent God and the brotherhood of man.

And we have to be thankful that all down the years since that time there have been heroic souls, worthy sons of noble sires—who have never ceased to call to us with clarion voice to watch and preserve the old landmarks, to plant our feet upon the everlasting rock and stand firm.

And over and above all else, we have to be thankful that a merciful God has so moulded the hearts and lives of the people of this nation that we are enabled to look above and beyond self and see for ourselves, great principles of eternal truth and justice must ultimately rule the whole earth; that we are enabled to grasp the truth that an injury to ourselves, and a kindness to our fellows calls down a benediction upon our own heads.

Women Give Out

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Rushville woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to heed this Rushville woman's experience:

Mrs. Joseph S. Endicott, 125 South Harrison street, Rushville, says: "Sometimes I overdo at my housework and take cold and it is at just such occasions as this, that I have trouble with my back. Once the doctor pronounced it an attack of lumbago. My back became so lame that I was miserable and everything in the way of work wore me out. When stooping, sharp catches seized me across the small of my back. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Lytle's Drug Store never failed to cure me of these spells."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Endicott uses. Foster-Milburn Co., Props, Buffalo, N. Y. (Adv.)

BEE KEEPERS IN ANNUAL MEETING

Will Seek to Establish a Trade Name For Honey—President Gives His Report.

MAGAZINE EDITOR SPEAKS

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 27.—Indiana bee keepers met here today for their annual convention. One of the main questions coming before the honey growers was that of establishment of a trade name for honey.

The bee men do not believe "honey" makes a satisfactory name for commercial usage and are attempting to find a suitable substitute.

Edward R. Root, of Ohio, editor of a magazine devoted to bee keeping, addressed the convention on the subject and later in the meeting it will be taken up for discussion.

Mason J. Niblack, of Vincennes, president of the association, delivered his annual report at the opening session this morning. Eugene S. Miller, reputed to be the most extensive keeper of bees in Indiana having more than 400 colonies on his farm near Valparaiso, told the delegates some of the most modern methods of caring for bees.

Frank Wallace, state apiary inspector, and R. E. Snodgrass, delivered their annual reports, telling of the work which they have accomplished during the last year. Other speakers were Prof. Jagers, of Minnesota university and C. P. Dadant of Hamilton, Ill.

CHRISTMAS SHIP IS READY TO SAIL

Boxes, Bales and Bundles For Relief of Syrians Arrive at Warf For Loading.

EXPECTED TO LEAVE DEC. 1

(By United Press.)

New York, Nov. 27.—Boxes, bales and bundles of supplies to form the cargo of the American Red Cross Christmas Relief ship for the benefit of Syrians were arriving at Red Cross Bush Terminal in Brooklyn today—the last day of their availability. The Relief ship is to sail for Beirut, Syria about December 1. The shipment will be chiefly clothing.

Persons who intended to make gifts but delayed too long still have opportunity. On account of the fighting on the Somme immense stores of hospital supplies are needed. Money donations made the Red Cross for these supplies will be applied promptly.

So that the one supreme blessing for which we should at this season return thanks, is the fact that a common God has enabled us as a people to know and do the right.

A kind heart saddles the load of many an empty pocketbook.

Some men are so dense they cannot realize their own density.

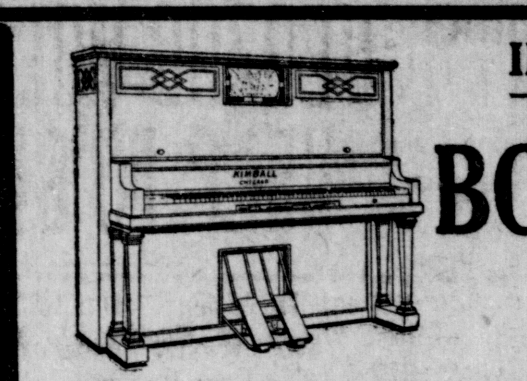

People who rush through life in their youth invariably pull back with all of their might at the end of the trail.

One of the most aggravating things in this world is to have your hair fall out of your head and sprout in your nose at the same time.

Some women are so consistent they resolutely decline to ever say what they mean.

JESSE STONE RECOVERING

Former Auditor of Rush County Suffers Serious Injuries

Jesse Stone of Carthage, former auditor of Rush county, is slowly recovering from injuries sustained in a fall last week from the roof of a smoke house on his farm, near Gwynneville. For a time Mr. Stone was in a critical condition, but now it appears he will recover. Mr. Stone was engaged in repairing the roof of the smoke house and lost his balance and fell to the ground, a distance of ten feet, alighting on his head and shoulders. He was rendered unconscious and for several days was paralyzed. An ambulance was called from Greenfield to remove him to his home. No bones were broken, but he suffered greatly from numerous bruises.

Obituary.

Ada, the beloved daughter of Joseph and Rhoda Kaster was born June 6, 1886, in Ripley county, Ind., and departed this life Nov. 22, 1916, at the age of 30 years, 5 months and 16 days.

She was united in marriage to Edward P. Fowl, Feb. 27, 1904, to this union was born three children. The father went on before Sept. 13, 1909, leaving the mother the care of little Joseph, Elvin and Alta.

Having put her trust in God at the early age of fifteen, she bravely trusted Him who doeth all things well. Ada was an obedient daughter a loving sister and devoted mother, always considering others pleasures and comforts first; never tiring of showing her love for those about her. She was united in marriage to Alfred Crawley, Dec. 26, 1914. Their lives were united together in Godly love—their christian influence and hospitality was felt by all who entered their home, but now he is left to mourn his loss with the children, Joseph, age 11, Elvin age 9, and Alta age 7, father, mother, two sisters, Mrs. Ona Hull, of Indianapolis, Iva Gard and a brother Ira Kaster of this place besides a host of friends and relatives. Yet they are consoled with the knowledge that she was prepared to meet her God. She was always interested in the salvation of souls. Her earnest expectations were manifested by her home life and the training of her children.

Ada was only sick fifteen days but everything loving hands and money could procure was at her disposal. Her doctors and nurses did everything possible to relieve her sufferings. She was very patient and quietly awaited the end, which came Wednesday afternoon at 3:15 and Jesus in his love and mercy took her home to be with him, where there is no sickness, no pain or death, but all will be love, peace and joy.

Ada is not dead, just gone on before, our loss is her gain. She will be sadly missed in her home by her husband and children in the community where she lived by her neighbors and relatives and in the church by her pastor and co-workers for Jesus. She was of a sunny disposition and made friends wherever she went.

How sweet is the promise: "That where she is, there we may be also." Dearest Ada thou hast left us — And thy loss we deeply feel But 'twas Jesus who hath bereft us He can all our sorrows heal. 22011.

Why Rheumatism Comes With Cold Weather

By Valentine Mott Pierce, M. D.

A close connection exists between these two—cold weather and rheumatism. Prof. Alex. Haig, of London, has the most followers in the medical profession in the belief that the presence in the system of uric acid, or its salts in excess, is the real cause of rheumatism. Every one has recognized the difference in the appearance of their water as soon as it gets cold; there is often a copious sediment of "brickdust." Several causes may lead up to an accumulation of uric acid in the system, which, in turn, causes rheumatism or gout, or creaky joints, swollen fingers, or painful joints. For one reason the skin does not throw off the uric acid, by profuse sweating, as in the hot weather, and the kidneys are unable to take care of the double burden. Another reason is that people do not drink as much water in cold weather as in summer, which helps to flush the kidneys. Again, they eat more meat in cold weather, and some people are so susceptible that they soon develop rheumatism after eating meat. At all such times persons should drink copiously of hot water, say, a pint morning and night, and take Anurie three or four times a day. This Anurie comes in tablet form and can be had at almost any drug store. It dissolves the uric acid in the system and carries it outward. I would advise everyone to take it occasionally, and continue for three or four weeks, and in that way to avoid rheumatism, gout and many of the painful disorders due to uric acid in the system. Make yourself healthy and strong by open-air exercise and diet. Then clean th liver by occasionally stimulating its action with a pleasant laxative composed of the May-apple dried juice of aloes, and root of jalap. Sugar-coated and long sold by all druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. (Adv.)

HERZOG WILL BE HELP TO GIANTS

Deal That Sent Him to New York Was Master Piece of Work For McGraw.

HE IS KNOWN AS A FIGHTER

As a Close Student of the Game he is Credited With Reviving Team Last Fall.

BY HAMILTON. (U. P. Staff Correspondent.) New York, Nov. 27.—When John McGraw put over the deal that sent Christy Mathewson to Cincinnati as manager of the Reds, and brought Charley Herzog to New York to play second base for the Giants he accomplished one of the brightest moves of his somewhat brilliant career.

Regardless of McGraw's managerial ability, and regardless of how the Giants stand up next year, there is one thing that will be just as evident as it was when the New Yorkers hung up their historical winning streak last fall. Charley Herzog will be in there fighting and driving his team mates to greater efforts.

More than one close student of baseball gives Herzog more than half the credit for reviving the Giants last fall. His irresistible enthusiasm, his fighting mood on all occasions, and, best of all, his ability to make those playing with him spurt at the same speed simply catapulted the Giants into that winning streak.

Herzog is not rated so good a hitter as Larry Doyle, his predecessor as second baseman for the Giants; he is not considered so good a base runner as Benny Kauff, and he is not the fielder that Eddie Collins is, but he is a fighter when the rest of them are through and he puts it over with a fineness that gives his a minimum of expulsions from the game.

There is one excellent example of Merzog's energy and the lengths to which he will go to win a ball game.

Brooklyn was playing in New York last summer and Casey Stengel was thrown out at second base. Casey is considerable of a scrapper himself and he came up raving. Charles came up raving with him and he kept at it until he had cornered Stengel's goat to such an extent that Casey was ordered to the clubhouse. Herzog had so incensed Stengel that the Brooklyn outfielder turned his attention to the baseball player rather than to the umpire and the two of them wrangled several minutes before Stengel by requests went to the shower.

WRITING TO MUSIC

Pupils of the typewriting department of the high school are using their hands to music, instead of their feet. Mrs. Twomey, the instructor in typewriting, has installed a Victrola, and the beginners keep time as they pound the keys. It is stated the idea is to keep the pupils from writing too fast as soon as they get accustomed to the keyboard and to time the motion of each finger equally.

TWO GAMES SET FOR THIS WEEK

High School Basketball Team Will Play Greencastle Wednesday and Connersville Friday

CHANGE MADE IN SCHEDULE

Quintet Votes to Play on the Connersville Floor Regardless of the Handicap

The high school basketball team faces two hard games this week. The first is on Wednesday night when the Greencastle high school team comes here for a game. The second contest of the week is on Friday night when Rushville travels to Connersville to play the high school team of that place.

The Connersville game was originally scheduled for Wednesday night but the date was changed when Greencastle asked for a game here. The Greencastle team is known to be strong and a good game can be expected. There was some talk of cancelling the Connersville game as the Connersville management insisted on playing the game on their forty by twenty cellar floor.

The team yesterday voted to play the game regardless of the floor. Rushville gave Connersville the worst beating in several years recently on the local floor and the team will try to repeat, although the floor is a handicap.

Prof. Master, who is coaching the local team, coached the Greencastle team last year and he is especially anxious to defeat his former students. Hard practice was the rule for this week as the team is determined to "come back."

Martin, the lengthy center of the Rushville team, who was kept out of the Richmond game on account of injuries, is expected to be in shape to play Wednesday night. The locals have a hard schedule and the hardest games appear to come early in the season. The team is not discouraged over the two defeats recently suffered and will enter the Greencastle game fully determined to win.

If the team can defeat Connersville Friday night on the dinky Connersville floor, the fans here will overlook all of the defeats for the rest of the season. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wilson entertained at supper at their home in this city last evening when their guests were the Misses Ruth Champion and Bernice Reynolds and Carl King, the two latter being from Connersville.

The meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the Christian church to be held in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon is to be an important one. Officers for the coming year are to be elected. The members are requested to be prompt as the meeting will begin at 2:30.

"Tis the last Thursday in November, Is the one day we should remember So bring your friend, short or tall, To the Matinee dance at the Odd Fellows Hall."

So read the clever invitations received here by a number of dance lovers for the party to be given in the Odd Fellows hall at Shelbyville on Thursday afternoon and evening.

The parties given by the Glove company for their employees have grown to be annual affairs and another one will be given tomorrow evening at the Phi Delta Kappa hall in the form of an informal dancing party. Each employee is allowed to invite one guest and their parents. Sherman's orchestra is to play for the party and the affair promises to be more than enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Webb and son, Frank, entertained Thursday evening at their country home southwest of the city. Potted flowers aided in the decorations of the rooms where the guests spent the evening with music and games of Rook. Refreshments were served to the company of friends which included Mr. and Mrs. Will Merrill, the Misses Ida Redden, Zeola Merrill, Frances Thompson, Tensil Merrill, and Letha Hungerford and Lot Redden. Clarence Weidner and Watson Miller.

Honoring the birthday of the twin sons of Mrs. Edna Dagler, Louis and Warren, a number of their relatives arranged a surprise that was a delight in every sense of the word and gave it yesterday. The members of the family were cleverly kept away from home until noon and when they came in, they found a table filled with a bountiful dinner and surrounded by their relatives. Two pretty birthday cakes, lit with the proper number of candles for the 13 year old boys were in the center of the table. Those who arranged this affair were Mr. and Mrs. William Dagler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dagler of Richmond, Miss Leone Dagler of Richmond, Miss Stella Walker of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. John Dagler and children, Donald and Dorothy, of Centerville, Clayton Dagler, Paul Offutt of Connersville, Mrs. Mary Bursott, T. M. Offutt, Mrs. William Offutt and daughter, Rema.

All the exquisiteness, the ease, the novelty of the new poetry were touched on by Miss Margaret Donnan Saturday afternoon as she reviewed the collection of modern poetry in the book under the name "Georgian Poetry," reading a bit here and there and commenting on its author. Too, she reviewed "The Brook Kerith" by George Moore. The class met at the Graham school and the meeting was marked by an excellent attendance.

In the collection of poets in "Georgian Poetry" are included only the lesser known of the later English poets, of them Maysfield and Gibson being the best known. Speaking of Gordon Bottemye's "King Lear's Wife," Miss Donnan said, "We are interested in it not so much for what it is worth itself, but because we feel as if we should like to keep track of the man who wrote such an unusual poem."

She then gave a short synopsis of the poem. None of the poems read by Miss Donnan was more pleasing than "Stay-at-Home" by William H. Davies, who though unfamiliar to most of us, writes "delightful poems, sparkling ones, with now and then an unhappy strain." Walter de LaMere writes of "spiritual loveliness and physical liveliness." Too, as is illustrated in the "Three Jolly Farmers," he catches the commonplace unaware. This bit of a poem written with a jingle suggestive of the action in the poem was read by Miss Donnan.

"Like many others," said Miss Donnan, "John Drinkwater, another modern poet, has tried in his little volume to answer, 'what is poetry?' and he decided that the definition given by Coleridge is about the best, that poetry is 'the best words in the best order.' Wilford Wilson Gibson, who at first wrote dainty lyrics, then stern ugly realities, finds a medium in his later poems. An unusual and highly interesting one is 'Hoops.' This bit of a poem, the scene of which is laid in a circus tent carries a moral with it, brought out in the dialogue between Gentleman John and the hunchback. Ralph Hodgson has written 'The Bull' and 'The Songs of Honor,' both of which are excellent."

Lasalle Abercrombie was the last poet touched on. Miss Donnan spoke very highly of him and his one poem in the book, giving the description of several men on hearing a comet was to come. The dramatic form in this poem is characteristic of Abercrombie.

"George Moore's book is called 'The Brook Kerith' because this is one of the creeks leading into the Jordan River and it is near here that the setting of the book is laid," she said. "Unlike many of his other writings, Mr. Moore in this book seldom mentions himself or what he thinks. He has written it in an exquisite style, thanks partly to his French education; for although he was Irish, he was educated in France."

"The book is very unusual. It is about the life of Christ, not the Christ of Christianity, but an inspired prophet and the facts in the book have been obtained from old legends of the time. They follow him as he studied in a monastery, then went to Jerusalem, preached and was crucified. The story opens with Joseph at Jerusalem when he is hearing Jesus preach. He is simply carried away with him and follows him to Egypt. Because of his devotion to Jesus, Joseph's father, then an old man, makes Joseph promise that he will not hear Jesus preach again until after his death. The scenes in the book present, Joseph caring for the wounds of Jesus after the crucifixion, Paul entering on the way to Caesarea, and ends with Jesus starting with Paul to Caesarea after Paul has spent a time in the monastery. The descriptions of the holy land are lovely, and the author has handled in a wise way the situation of dealing with Jesus in a modern book."

At the next meeting, Miss Donnan will discuss "Xingu" short stories by Edith Wharton; "The Man Against the Sky" by Robinson; and "Nights" by Mary Elizabeth Pennell.

A pitch-in dinner was enjoyed at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith in North Main street yesterday noon when their guests were Mr. and Mrs. John H. Frazee, Mrs. Fannie O. Smith, and Mrs. Gertrude Conde.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Chance entertained with a prettily appointed dinner Sunday at their home in Falmouth when their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Duke, Mrs. Charles Doland and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mazingo and Mr. and Mrs. John Knecht and family.

Following the play "The Truth About Jane" which is to be given at the St. Paul's M. E. church tomorrow evening, there will be a social and games for the young people. The playlet is a clever little skit disclosing "The Truth About Jane," in a very novel way. Everyone is invited to attend. Doors are open at 7:30.

The meeting of the S. E. T. Club which was to have been held this week has been postponed for two weeks.

Fruit and Refrigerator Cars Ordered Back to Help Shortage.

Washington, Nov. 27.—To stave off a feared disastrous car shortage, all railroads of the country were ordered to return to their home lines all fruit and refrigerator cars, the conference committee on car efficiency announced. The committee

To Have or Not to Have.

"Dear Miss Stewart," your letters read, "Do you believe it necessary for young girls to have chaperons?"

Do I? It depends entirely upon the young girl, the affair she is attending, and her escort. People look at these things differently than they did years ago, and it is considered permissible for a young girl and her escort to attend the theatre, concert or musical without a chaperon.

In the case of week-ends, large theater parties and other similar social gatherings where a number of people gather, it is always to have some older person in the party to lend dignity.

The presence of a chaperon should not be resented, it seems to me. I have never yet found a kind aunt or my mother in the way during a party. Somehow I always feel more contented when they are about.

Afternoon socials very seldom need a chaperon, unless the guests are very young, as at a children's home of theatre-party. Then it is always deemed necessary to have someone on hand to look after the most demonstrative youngsters.

In these days of greater liberality

when girls are working elbow-to-elbow with men in the business world it seems to me a mere formality to require them to be chaperoned attending a theatre in the evening with a boy friend. This is all a matter of opinion and circumstances, however, and one must be bold to venture a general opinion on the question.

A picnic, yatching or motor party always lacks something without an older woman present, unless all the guests are informal friends of long standing. Besides lending dignity to a gathering a chaperon is usually able to help in seeing that all the guests have an enjoyable time and that nobody is neglected. This is usually a most welcome aid if the gathering is at all large.

Naturally I often have to be chaperoned for the sake of convention. If I were recognized attending any kind of an evening affair with a gentleman friend and there were no chaperon present, everyone would make it an occasion for comment. You see motion picture stars do have their troubles, though it is very wonderful to have people take enough interest in you to care about what you do.

THE MODERN WAY

The modern housewife does not convert her home into a factory, at least to the extent of making it more of an industrial institution than it is a home. Instead of baking their own bread, thousands of housewives are getting it from the bakery. Likewise, canned goods are not put up in the home, but purchased from the grocer. Clothing is not made in the home, as in the days of your grandmother; it is purchased outside, and delivered to you, ready to wear. Then why not do the logical thing in another case, and send your household linens and washable apparel to a modern power laundry? Washing and ironing are factory processes, that for at least one day in each week render the average home almost uninhabitable. Perhaps you have found this out, and are having all or part of your laundering done in the home of a washerwoman. If you will let us do your laundering, you can rest assured that it is being done under sanitary conditions and in a sanitary manner.

Give us a trial order, and then you will be a regular customer—happy and care free on Monday, as far as laundering is concerned.

IN INDIANA TODAY

Newcastle—Newcastle, Muncie, Richmond and Indianapolis were represented in the opening game of the Indiana Polo league here today.

Richmond—J. L. Townshend, a farmer, was awakened by a burglar alarm in his chicken house. He grabbed a shotgun and ran to the window in time to see the thief running with a chicken in his hand. Townsend shot and killed the chicken, frightened the thief so that he dropped his booty and escaped.

Milton—Linville Wessler killed a snake two and a half feet long with a sugar spile around the center of its body. Apparently the snake had crawled into the spile when it was small. It's body on either side of the spile was about 2 inches in diameter.

HOOSIER BRIEFS.

Wabash—After doing a rushing business in issuing hunting licenses, County Clerk E. E. Roby shoved a hunting permit blank through the window, when a man stepped up and asked for a license. The man started to fill out the application, but handed it back to the clerk saying that he wanted a marriage license.

Huntington—Men of the first Christian church of this city displayed wonderful culinary ability, when they took their turn at the skilllets and prepared a banquet for their wives at the church.

Alexandria — Twenty-five cent haircuts have passed into history so far as Alexandria is concerned. The tonsorial artists here boosted the price to thirty-five cents.

Michigan City—All Dan Hodley needed to open a saloon was a license—he had enough liquor, according to the judge who fined Hodley $1 for being intoxicated.

Mrs. Narsis Burns, Born When Jefferson Was President Celebrates Birthday

HER ELDEST DAUGHTER IS 83

(By United Press.)
Waxahachie, Tex., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Narsis Burns, born when Thomas Jefferson was president of the United States, celebrated her 110th birth anniversary Sunday. Her three daughters, the eldest of whom is 89, and many of her 110 grand and great-grandchildren will be at the celebration. Mr. Burns died thirty years ago.

Born in Madison county, Tenn., Nov. 26, 1806 and now Mrs. Burns, whose maiden name was Yarborough, moved to Texas with her father's family at the age of 10. She has lived in the Lone Star State since. Her earliest memories go back to the time of her arrival. She married John Washington Burns, a veteran of the Texas-Mexican and the Mexican war of 46-48. He later fought on the Confederate side in the Civil War.

ELLIS WOOD GOES ON TRIAL

APPROPRIATION REACHES $5,000

County Council Provides for Expense of Election and For Court House Repairs

$1,500 OF TOTAL FOR FORMER

Primary and Registration Cost $3, 500, Balance in Fund Not Being Sufficient for Election

The county council appropriated a total of $5,000 at the special ses- sion late Saturday afternoon. Of this sum $1,500 is for election ex- pense and $3,500 for court house repairs.

The election bills are not yet known and will not be until the county commissioners allow the claims. The bills for the various precincts are hardly alike and the commissioners will first have to de- termine how much each election of- ficial is entitled to and then allow all of them the same amount.

Some of the inspectors put in claims for as high as five days' service and others three and four days. It would not be fair to allow some more than others and for this reason the commissioners will strike a medium and then allow all of the officials the same amount.

The appropriation of $1,500 will probably more than cover the ex- pense. Allowing $50 to the precinct the expense would run $1,550. The expense per precinct may be only $40 a precinct and it is almost cer- tain not to be over $60.

The combined expense of the pri- mary last March and the registra- tion in October amounted to $3,300. The appropriation for elections was $3,500 so that the additional appro- priation of $1,500 will more than cover the expense. The increased cost of the election to Rush county comes only because of the primary. In other years the registration has been figured in but this year the primary cost the county the addi- tional sum.

The other appropriation made Saturday, that of $3,500 for court house repair, is for repairs at the power plant and for additional work on the court house roof. Part of this amount will go towards paying for the new roof on the tower. Other items include the cost for painting the clock, repairing the windows in the tower and the plac- ing of new down spouts. All of this extra work was not included in the original contract. The total cost of the roof and work will be about $16,000. The original con- tract was $12,000.

TWO CHILDREN ARE MADE COURT WARDS

Son and Daughter of Mrs. Myrtle
Hood May be Placed in the Odd Fellows Home

RUTH WIDAU GETS DIVORCE

Judge Sparks held a session of juvenile court this afternoon. Robert and Elizabeth Hood, children of Mrs. Myrtle Hood, held in jail on a charge of running a house of ill-fame, were made wards of the court. They were brought to the attention of the court as being neglected children. The girl is seven years old and the boy four years old. An effort will be made to place the children in the Odd Fellows home in Greensburg.

Judge Sparks was in Newcastle this morning on official business.

Late Saturday afternoon the court granted Mrs. Ruth Widau a divorce from John Widau upon pay- ment of the costs. Mrs. Widau was given her maiden name of Ruth Joel.

CELEBRATION TO MIRROR OLDEN DAYS

Orange Will Hold a Centennial on December 9 in Connection
With Teachers' Institute.

DIAPASON CHOIR TO SING

Plans are moving forward rapidly for the centennial to be held at Orange, December 9, which will be an all day affair. The teachers of the school have taken charge of the celebration but all the citizens of the community and township are taking an active part in making it a suc- cess. All of the township is to be represented and to take part.

The program, although not com- pleted, will start with teachers in- stitute in the morning; a patrons program in the afternoon when talks particularly for the patrons of the school will be given; and a pro- gram of episodes similar to a pag- eant in the evening. Phases of life in the past century will be repre- sented in this exhibition. The diapason choir will sing, there will be an old fashioned music school, in fact every thing will mirror the olden times. A display of relics is being collected to be shown in the school house where all of the celebration will take place.

WILL HAVE JOINT SERVICE

The Methodist church of Fal- mouth and the Christian church of Fairview will have a joint Thanks- giving service Thursday morning at ten o'clock in the Fairview church. The Rev. Daniel Ryan of Glenwood will preach. That night he will preach at the Falmouth church.

—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cohee and family went to Indianapolis today for future residence.

CHURCH DEBT IS WIPE OUT

New Home of Christian Congregation at Milroy is Paid for by Additional Contributions

HOLD DEDICATION SERVICES

Structure Erected at Cost of $16,-
000—C. W. Cauble Delivers
Two Sermons

The beautiful new Christian church at Milroy, erected at a total cost of $16,000 was dedicated yester- day with appropriate ceremon- ies taking place at an all-day meet- ing. The congregation is proud of its accomplishment, which in this case is unusual, for the new church is entirely paid for. Pledges amounting to $4,000 were made dur- ing the services yesterday wiping out the small debt incurred by reason of building the church.

Last spring when the congrega- tion was contemplating the building of the church a canvass was made and resulted in the raising of $13,000. With this amount assured the trustees and officers of the church felt warranted in going ahead and the contract was let to Morris M. Winship of this city. The achieve- ment is no small task and the church building stands out as a fine addition to the town of Milroy. The congregation moves into the new building, which is paid for and with a balance left in the treasury.

The dedicatory sermons were de- livered by C. W. Cauble, of Indiana- polis, state corresponding secretary of the Christian Missionary socie- ties. Many visiting ministers were present at the afternoon service. A basket dinner was served at noon and was participated in by several hundred people. Special music was rendered at all services.

Services will be held at the church every night this week pre- paratory to a revival that will start next Monday. The Rev. C. M. Yo- cum of the Main Street Christian church will preach tonight and the Rev. F. Z. Burkett of Greensburg tomorrow night.

Many people from this city at- tended the dedication ceremonies.

REFUSE A SAFE CONDUCT

British Will Not Insure Safety of Austrian Ambassador to U. S.

(By United Press.)
London, Nov. 27.—It was official- ly announced today that the British government had refused a safe con- duct for Count Tainowski, recently appointed Austro-Hungarian am- bassador to United States.

A statement made to Ambassador Page by the British foreign office gave grounds for the refusal of safe conduct for the ambassador as being based on previous cases where diplomats accredited to central powers have not acted in an exclu- sive diplomatic capacity.

GIVE SUBMARINE WARNING

(By United Press.)
New York, Nov. 27.—Wireless flashes from British cruisers direct- ed to all entente shipping in Amer- ican waters warning them to be on the lookout for German submarines intensified reports here today of German submarines nearing the United States and preparing for wholesale raids on shipping. A rumor also reached New York that two submarines are near the New Hampshire coast. One of these is said to be the U-53, the submarine which sank five ships near Nan- tucket last week.

FOR BENEFIT OF ELKS CHARITIES

Round Table Festival Company Will Present Program of Artistic
Specialities December 8

RUSSIAN DANCER IN CAST

Principal Features are Tenor Operatic Singing, Italian Harp Music and Interpretative Dancing

The Round Table Festival com- pany, which will appear at the Gra- ham Annex auditorium on Friday night, December 8, under the aus- pices of the Elks lodge, comes to Rushville with high recommenda- tions from other cities in Indiana and with the endorsement of many of the state's leading citizens.

The Elks will use the sum de- rived from the program given by the company for their Christmas charity fund. Since its formation here, the Rushville chapter of the Elks lodge has always taken an ac- tive part in spreading Christmas cheer.

The Round Table Festival com- pany, which presents a purely classical program, played in many of the larger cities in Indiana last season. It makes its appeal wholly from the standpoint of artistic specialities, the principal features of which are the aesthetic and in- terpretative dancing, Italian harp music, tenor operatic singing and dramatic reading. The star of the company's cast is Mlle. Lila Meiro of Petrograd.

Rowena Cosner

Miss Cosner is a dramatic reader of wide experience. Her work is declared to be characterized by in- tensity, refinement and charm. Press comments from where she has ap- peared say that she arouses the en- thusiasm of the audience and sus- tains the interest until the last. Miss Cosner combines a rich voice and a captivating presence with fine insight and dramatic apprecia- tion, which makes her a finished reader.

The Round Table Festival com- pany's program has the endorse- ment of Governor Ralston; State Superintendent of Public Instruc- tion Charles A. Greathouse; Mrs. Felix T. McWhirter, former presi- dent of the Indiana Federation of Women's clubs; and the Rev. Allan B. Philpott, pastor of the Central Christian church, Indianapolis.

Izola May Shirley and Miss Hazel Fesler are assisting the Elks lodge this week in the advance sale of seats. Every seat in the audi- torium will be reserved at the same price.

BASKETBALL COURT

For the benefit of his Sunday School class, the Little Hustlers, George Witsee has installed a bas- ketball court on the third floor of his five and ten cent store where it is thrown open for the boys to play basketball. All the improve- ments necessary for the game have been installed.

DAMAGE JURY STILL OUT

One Which Heard Case Against
Perrott Deliberated 66 Hours

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 27.—At noon today the jury trying the dam- age suit brought against Chief of Police Perrott and other police of- ficers by Thomas Campbell, colored, for $25,000, was still deliberating after being locked up for 66 hours. Campbell asked damages on the grounds that police prevented him from registering and consequently the loss of his vote at the last election. The jury has been out since Friday night at six o'clock.

CHIHUAHUA CITY STILL UNDER SIEGE

Attempted Storming of Northern Mexican Capital by Villa Under Progress Today

LOSSES REPORTED HEAVY

(By United Press.)
El Paso, Texas, Nov. 27.—That the attempted storming of Chihua- hua City by an army of 4,000 band- its under command of Villa was still in progress today, was the declaration of United States de- partment agents here. They based their statement upon the action of the Mexican government authorities in sending every Carranzista soldier available in northern Mexico to the relief of the besieged city.

In United States official circles it was stated that it was certain Chihua- hua City was in a state of siege or messengers would have brought word to the border.

Losses in the four days fighting have been extremely heavy, one message saying that the streets were filled with dead and that it was impossible to aid wounded be- cause of incessant firing.

WALL STREET WANTS THE WAR TO CLOSE

Diplomats at Washington Say Growing Decrease in Munition Contracts Arouses Fears

BIG LOANS MAY BE AFFECTED

(By United Press.)
Washington, Nov. 27.—Wall Street is anxious for the war to end, in the opinion of prominent diplomats here today.

Timidity over security for vast loans and a growing decrease in munition contracts is said to be re- sponsible for the increasing finan- cial desire for peace. The finan- ciers are said to fear that their loans may be affected if Europe tries to pile up creditors while de- stroying more lives and property.

This feeling was called the in- spiration for the recent peace talk in New York, by a high official to- day.

GENTRY BROS. SELL SHOW

(By United Press.)
Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 27.—A deal was closed here today by the Gentry Brothers for the sale of their circus to J. D. Newman and J. B. Austin for $100,000. The new purchasers were with the Gentry Brothers for 20 years.

STATE CELEBRATION

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 27.—A statewide celebration of the anni- versary of the admission of Indiana into the union will be held on the night of December 11 at the state house; it was decided at a meeting of the Indiana Historical commis- sion today.

INSPIRATION IN THIS CAMPAIGN

Fact That Rush County Was Second in Seal Sales in Its Division in 1915 Helpful in 1916

PENNANTS AWARDED AGAIN

But Basis is Different Because Contests are Between, Villages,
Cities and Towns

To finish second in their division last year with the sale of Red Cross Seals offers some inspiration for the Psi Iota Xi sorority girls who are this year again conducting the campaign in this city.

However, the contest this year is different than that last because it is based on cities and not counties. The change was made so as to en- able small towns and villages other than county seats to share in the glory of competing for a prize.

Last year counties were placed in divisions according to population and a pennant awarded in each division. This year cities and towns are placed in divisions, like- wise according to population, and the prize for each division will also be a pennant.

Rushville city will fall in the class with a population between 3,000 and 7,000. That is class four. Other towns in the county may contest for a prize in their respective classes. Class one is for towns and villages between 300 and 600. Any under 300 will have to compete in that class. The second class is for towns and cities of 600 to 1,200 and the third class from 1,200 to 3,000.

Vernum county won the pen- nant in the class in which Rush county competed last year. This county was second, selling $115 worth of Seals. The sorority girls hope to equal that amount this year, although they will be confined to the city.

Heretofore, seventy-five per cent of the proceeds from the sale of Seals went back to the county in which they are sold, but this year seventy-five per cent of the sale will be returned to the community in which the Seals are purchased. This change means that Rushville will receive just three-fourths of the money spent in Rushville alone for Seals. The custom here is to turn all that over to the visiting nurse.

In past years, because the whole county supported the movement, it was felt that the visiting nurse be- longed to the whole county and should answer calls outside Rush- ville. But now the plan has been changed, the visiting nurse will confine her work to Rushville alone and other communities may use their per cent of their sales any way they see fit.

The Princess offers the feature picture "Paying the Price" for the program tonight. The rivalry between an army and navy lieutenant is the basic plot of the story. Gail Kane is featured. It is overflowing with realistic atmosphere such as is seldom seen or pressed into a live reel feature. Gladden James, June Evidge and Robert Cummings are three top-notchers in the cast which lend grace and charm to the picture. Tomorrow the next chapter of "The Scarlet Runner" will be shown. This one is entitled "The Jacobean House."

"The Test" one of the really big successes of the stage, will be seen in pictures at the Gem theater tonight. Jane Grey, in the leading part, will be supported by such people as Lumsden Hare, Claude Flemming and Inez Buck. Tomorrow will be seen Marie Walcamp and Jack Holt in "Dead or Alive," episode No. 4 of "Liberty"; Mary Fuller in "The Trail of Chance," a two-act 101 Bison, Billie Armstrong in an L-Ko comedy, "A Double Double-Cross."

The Mystic offers the fifth episode of "The Shielding Shadow"

Chorus Girl Falls For Leon Friedman of the Follies.

(By United Press.)
New York, Nov. 27.—"A dazzling chorus of bright-eyed beauties," "an ocular symphony," "a whirl of gleeful curves," and other expressions denoting the last word in feminine charms were things Leon Friedman wrote for ten years as a mere matter of daily routine. He was press agent for the Ziegfeld Follies.

But now its all different. It isn't casual any more. Its from the heart. For among the chorus girls was Grace Jones, slender blonde and all the regular stuff. Friedman fell. They are to be married Thanksgiving day.

Both are "thankfully thankful."

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

Thanksgiving.

From the time of the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers, Americans have been accustomed to set aside one day in the year wherein to review the past year and take stock of dealings of Providence with us as a people.

What was at first the spontaneous expression of grateful hearts soon became a custom, and as the years sped this custom became fixed; until today it assumes the sacredness of a permanent institution.

This season is again with us. The fruits of the board acres of our fair domain have been garnered in. The warehouses and granaries are fairly bursting with their contents and prosperity sits a guest at almost every fireside.

Our president and the governors of the various states have designated the day on which the people shall express to a bountiful Creator their gratitude for these blessings.

And to the many positive and material blessings which have been ours, there is added on this occasion the special blessing that we as a people have escaped the madness that has fallen as a blight upon our neighbors and kinsmen across the waters. The magnitude of that blessing we cannot at this time begin to estimate.

But while we have these palpable blessings for which to be thankful, we have other things for which to express our gratitude, and these antedate and underlie our present happiness and prosperity, our peace and safety. We have to be thankful that back in the days when our nation was being born, a land of heroes, than whom the world has never produced greater, had impressed upon their hearts to lay the foundations of that nation upon the only possible true and last base—the Fatherhood of an omnipotent God and the brotherhood of man.

And we have to be thankful that all down the years since that time there have been heroic souls, worthy sons of noble sires—who have never ceased to call to us with clarion voice to watch and preserve the old landmarks, to plant our feet upon the everlasting rock and stand firm.

And over and above all else, we have to be thankful that a merciful God has so moulded the hearts and lives of the people of this nation that we are enabled to look above and beyond self and see for ourselves, great principles of eternal truth and justice must ultimately rule the whole earth; that we are enabled to grasp the truth that an injury to ourselves, and a kindness to our fellows calls down a benediction upon our own heads.

Women Give Out

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Rushville woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to heed this Rushville woman's experience:

Mrs. Joseph S. Endicott, 125 South Harrison street, Rushville, says: "Sometimes I overdo at my housework and take cold and it is at just such occasions as this, that I have trouble with my back. Once the doctor pronounced it an attack of lumbago. My back became so lame that I was miserable and everything in the way of work wore me out. When stooping, sharp catches seized me across the small of my back. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Lytle's Drug Store never failed to cure me of these spells."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Endicott uses. Foster-Milburn Co., Props, Buffalo, N. Y. (Adv.)

BEE KEEPERS IN ANNUAL MEETING

MAGAZINE EDITOR SPEAKS

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 27.—Indiana bee keepers met here today for their annual convention. One of the main questions coming before the honey growers was that of establishment of a trade name for honey.

The bee men do not believe "honey" makes a satisfactory name for commercial usage and are attempting to find a suitable substitute.

Edward R. Root, of Ohio, editor of a magazine devoted to bee keeping, addressed the convention on the subject and later in the meeting it will be taken up for discussion.

Mason J. Niblack, of Vincennes, president of the association, delivered his annual report at the opening session this morning. Eugene S. Miller, reputed to be the most extensive keeper of bees in Indiana having more than 400 colonies on his farm near Valparaiso, told the delegates some of the most modern methods of caring for bees.

Frank Wallace, state apary inspector, and R. E. Snodgrass, delivered their annual reports, telling of the work which they have accomplished during the last year. Other speakers were Prof. Jagers, of Minnesota university and C. P. Dadant of Hamilton, Ill.

CHRISTMAS SHIP IS READY TO SAIL

Boxes, Bales and Bundles For Relief of Syrians Arrive at Warf For Loading.

EXPECTED TO LEAVE DEC. 1

(By United Press.)
New York, Nov. 27.—Boxes, bales and bundles of supplies to form the cargo of the American Red Cross Christmas Relief ship for the benefit of Syrians were arriving at Red Cross Bush Terminal in Brooklyn today—the last day of their availability. The Relief ship is to sail for Beirut, Syria about December 1. The shipment will be chiefly clothing.

Persons who intended to make gifts but delayed too long still have opportunity. On account of the fighting on the Somme immense stores of hospital supplies are needed. Money donations made the Red Cross for these supplies will be applied promptly.

So that the one supreme blessing for which we should at this season return thanks, is the fact that a common God has enabled us as a people to know and do the right.

A kind heart saddles the load of many an empty pocketbook.

Some men are so dense they cannot realize their own density.

People who rush through life in their youth invariably pull back with all of their might at the end of the trail.

One of the most aggravating things in this world is to have your hair fall out of your head and sprout in your nose at the same time.

Some women are so consistent they resolutely decline to ever say what they mean.

JESSE STONE RECOVERING

Former Auditor of Rush County Suffers Serious Injuries

Jesse Stone of Carthage, former auditor of Rush county, is slowly recovering from injuries sustained in a fall last week from the roof of a smoke house on his farm, near Gwynnville. For a time Mr. Stone was in a critical condition, but now it appears he will recover. Mr. Stone was engaged in repairing the roof of the smoke house and lost his balance and fell to the ground, a distance of ten feet, alighting on his head and shoulders. He was rendered unconscious and for several days was paralyzed. An ambulance was called from Greenfield to remove him to his home. No bones were broken, but he suffered greatly from numerous bruises.

Obituary.

Ada, the beloved daughter of Joseph and Rhoda Kaster was born June 6, 1886, in Ripley county, Ind., and departed this life Nov. 22, 1916, at the age of 30 years, 5 months and 16 days.

She was united in marriage to Edward P. Fowl, Feb. 27, 1904, to this union was born three children. The father went on before Sept. 13, 1909, leaving the mother the care of little Joseph, Elvin and Alta.

Having put her trust in God at the early age of fifteen, she bravely trusted Him who doeth all things well. Ada was an obedient daughter, a loving sister and devoted mother, always considering others pleasures and comforts first; never tiring of showing her love for those about her. She was united in marriage to Alfred Crawley, Dec. 26, 1914. Their lives were united together in Godly love—their christian influence and hospitality was felt by all who entered their home, but now he is left to mourn his loss with the children, Joseph, age 11, Elvin age 9, and Alta age 7, father, mother, two sisters, Mrs. Ona Hull, of Indianapolis, Iva Gard and a brother Ira Kaster of this place besides a host of friends and relatives. Yet they are consoled with the knowledge that she was prepared to meet her God. She was always interested in the salvation of souls. Her earnest expectations were manifested by her home life and the training of her children.

Ada was only sick fifteen days but everything loving hands and money could procure was at her disposal. Her doctors and nurses did everything possible to relieve her sufferings. She was very patient and quietly awaited the end, which came Wednesday afternoon at 3:15 and Jesus in his love and mercy took her home to be with him, where there is no sickness, no pain or death, but all will be love, peace and joy.

Ada is not dead, just gone on before, our loss is her gain. She will be sadly missed in her home by her husband and children in the community where she lived by her neighbors and relatives and in the church by her pastor and co-workers for Jesus. She was of a sunny disposition and made friends wherever she went.

How sweet is the promise: "That where she is, there we may be also." Dearest Ada thou hast left us — And thy loss we deeply feel But 'twas Jesus who hath bereft us He can all our sorrows heal.

Why Rheumatism Comes With Cold Weather

By Valentine Mott Pierce, M. D.

A close connection exists between these two—cold weather and rheumatism. Prof. Alex. Haig, of London, has the most followers in the medical profession in the belief that the presence in the system of uric acid, or its salts in excess, is the real cause of rheumatism. Every one has recognized the difference in the appearance of their water as soon as it gets cold; there is often a copious sediment of "brickdust." Several causes may lead up to an accumulation of uric acid in the system, which, in turn, causes rheumatism or gout, or creaky joints, swollen fingers, or painful joints. For one reason the skin does not throw off the uric acid, by profuse sweating, as in the hot weather, and the kidneys are unable to take care of the double burden. Another reason is that people do not drink as much water in cold weather as in summer, which helps to flush the kidneys. Again, they eat more meat in cold weather, and some people are so susceptible that they soon develop rheumatism after eating meat. At all such times persons should drink copiously of hot water, say, a pint morning and night, and take Anuric three or four times a day. This Anuric comes in tablet form and can be had at almost any drug store. It dissolves the uric acid in the system and carries it outward. I would advise everyone to take it occasionally, and continue for three or four weeks, and in that way to avoid rheumatism, gout and many of the painful disorders due to uric acid in the system.

Make yourself healthy and strong by open-air exercise and diet. Then clean th liver by occasionally stimulating its action with a pleasant laxative composed of the May-apple dried juice of aloes, and root of jalap. Sugar-coated and long sold by all druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. (Adv.)

HERZOG WILL BE HELP TO GIANTS

Deal That Sent Him to New York Was Master Piece of Work For McGraw.

HE IS KNOWN AS A FIGHTER

As a Close Student of the Game he is Credited With Reviving Team Last Fall.

BY HAMILTON.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
New York, Nov. 27.—When John McGraw put over the deal that sent Christy Mathewson to Cincinnati as manager of the Reds, and brought Charley Herzog to New York to play second base for the Giants he accomplished one of the brightest moves of his somewhat brilliant career.

Regardless of McGraw's managerial ability, and regardless of how the Giants stand up next year, there is one thing that will be just as evident as it was when the New Yorkers hung up their historical winning streak last fall. Charley Herzog will be in there fighting and driving his team mates to greater efforts.

More than one close student of baseball gives Herzog more than half the credit for reviving the Giants last fall. His irresistible enthusiasm, his fighting mood on all occasions, and, best of all, his ability to make those playing with him spurt at the same speed simply catapulted the Giants into that winning streak.

Herzog is not rated so good a hitter as Larry Doyle, his predecessor as second baseman for the Giants; he is not considered so good a base runner as Benny Kauff, and he is not the fielder that Eddie Collins is, but he is a fighter when the rest of them are through and he puts it over, with a fineness that gives his minimum of expulsions from the game.

There is one excellent example of Herzog's energy and the lengths to which he will go to win a ball game.

Brooklyn was playing in New York last summer and Casey Stengel was thrown out at second base. Casey is considerable of a scrapper himself and he came up raving. Charles came up raving with him and he kept at it until he had cornered Stengel's goat to such an extent that Casey was ordered to the clubhouse. Herzog had so incensed Stengel that the Brooklyn outfielder turned his attention to the baseball player rather than to the umpire and the two of them wrangled several minutes before Stengel by requests went to the shower.

WRITING TO MUSIC

Pupils of the typewriting department of the high school are using their hands to music, instead of their feet. Mrs. Twomey, the instructor in typewriting, has installed a Victrola and the beginners keep time as they pound the keys. It is stated the idea is to keep the pupils from writing too fast as soon as they get accustomed to the keyboard and to time the motion of each finger equally.

TWO GAMES SET FOR THIS WEEK

High School Basketball Team Will Play Greencastle Wednesday and Connersville Friday

CHANGE MADE IN SCHEDULE

Quintet Votes to Play on the Connersville Floor Regardless of the Handicap

The high school basketball team faces two hard games this week. The first is on Wednesday night when the Greencastle high school team comes here for a game. The second contest of the week is on Friday night when Rushville travels to Connersville to play the high school team of that place.

The Connersville game was originally scheduled for Wednesday night but the date was changed when Greencastle asked for a game here. The Greencastle team is known to be strong and a good game can be expected. There was some talk of cancelling the Connersville game as the Connersville management insisted on playing the game on their forty by twenty cellar floor.

The team yesterday voted to play the game regardless of the floor. Rushville gave Connersville the worst beating in several years recently on the local floor and the team will try to repeat, although the floor is a handicap.

Prof. Master, who is coaching the local team, coached the Greencastle team last year and he is especially anxious to defeat his former students. Hard practice was the rule for this week as the team is determined to "come back."

Martin, the lengthy center of the Rushville team, who was kept out of the Richmond game on account of injuries, is expected to be in shape to play Wednesday night. The locals have a hard schedule and the hardest games appear to

So read the clever invitations received here by a number of dance lovers for the party to be given in the Odd Fellows hall at Shelbyville on Thursday afternoon and evening.

The parties given by the Glove company for their employees have grown to be annual affairs and another one will be given tomorrow evening at the Phi Delta Kappa hall in the form of an informal dancing party. Each employee is allowed to invite one guest and their parents. Sherman's orchestra is to play for the party and the affair promises to be more than enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Webb and son, Frank, entertained Thursday evening at their country home southwest of the city. Potted flowers aided in the decorations of the rooms where the guests spent the evening with music and games of Rook. Refreshments were served to the company of friends which included Mr. and Mrs. Will Merrill, the Misses Ida Redden, Zeola Merrill, Frances Thompson, Tensil Merrill, and Letha Hungerford and Lot Redden. Clarence Weidner and Watson Miller.

Honoring the birthday of the twin sons of Mrs. Edna Dagler, Louis and Warren, a number of their relatives arranged a surprise that was a delight in every sense of the word and gave it yesterday. The members of the family were cleverly kept away from home until noon and when they came in, they found a table filled with a bountiful dinner and surrounded by their relatives. Two pretty birthday cakes, lit with the proper number of candles for the 13 year old boys were in the center of the table. Those who arranged this affair were Mr. and Mrs. William Dagler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dagler of Richmond, Miss Leone Dagler of Richmond, Miss Stella Walker of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. John Dagler and children, Donald and Dorothy, of Centerville, Clayton Dagler, Paul Offutt of Connersville, Mrs. Mary Bursott, T. M. Offutt, Mrs. William Offutt and daughter, Rena.

All the exquisiteness, the ease, the novelty of the new poetry were touched on by Miss Margaret Donnan Saturday afternoon as she reviewed the collection of modern poetry in the book under the name "Georgian Poetry," reading a bit here and there and commenting on its author. Too, she reviewed "The Brook Kerith" by George Moore. The class met at the Graham school and the meeting was marked by an excellent attendance.

In the collection of poets in "Georgian Poetry" are included only the lesser known of the later English poets, of them Maysfield and Gibson being the best known. Speaking of Gordon Bottemy's "King Lear's Wife," Miss Donnan said, "We are interested in it not so much for what it is worth itself, but because we feel as if we should like to keep track of the man who wrote such an unusual poem."

She then gave a short synopsis of the poem. None of the poems read by Miss Donnan was more pleasing than "Stay-at-Home" by William H. Davies, who though unfamiliar to most of us, writes "delightful poems, sparkling ones, with now and then an unhappy strain." Walter de LaMere writes of "spiritual loveliness and physical liveliness."

Too, as is illustrated in the "Three Jolly Farmers," he catches the commonplace unaware. This bit of a poem written with a jingle suggestive of the action in the poem was read by Miss Donnan. "Like many others," said Miss Donnan, "John Drinkwater, another modern poet, has tried in his little volume to answer, 'what is poetry?' and he decided that the definition given by Coleridge is about the best, that poetry is 'the best words in the best order.' Wilford Wilson Gibson, who at first wrote dainty lyrics, then sternly realistic, finds a medium in his later poems. An unusual and highly interesting one is 'Hoops.' This bit of a poem, the scene of which is laid in a circus tent carries a moral with it, brought out in the dialogue between Gentleman John and the hunchback. Ralph Hodgson has written 'The Ball' and 'The Songs of Honor,' both of which are excellent."

Lasalle Abercrombie was the last poet touched on. Miss Donnan spoke very highly of him and his one poem in the book, giving the description of several men on hearing a comet was to come. The dramatic form in this poem is characteristic of Abercrombie.

"George Moore's book is called 'The Brook Kerith' because this is one of the creeks leading into the Jordan River and it is near here that the setting of the book is laid," she said. "Unlike many of his other writings, Mr. Moore in this book seldom mentions himself or what he thinks. He has written it in an exquisite style, thanks partly to his French education; for although he was Irish, he was educated in France."

"The book is very unusual. It is about the life of Christ, not the Christ of Christianity, but an inspired prophet and the facts in the book have been obtained from old legends of the time. They follow him as he studied in a monastery, then went to Jerusalem, preached and was crucified. The story opens with Joseph at Jerusalem when he is hearing Jesus preach. He is simply carried away with him and follows him to Egypt. Because of his devotion to Jesus, Joseph's father, then an old man, makes Joseph promise that he will not hear Jesus preach again until after his death. The scenes in the book present, Joseph caring for the wounds of Jesus after the crucifixion, Paul entering on the way to Caesarea, and ends with Jesus starting with Paul to Caesarea after Paul has spent a time in the monastery. The descriptions of the holy land are lovely, and the author has handled in a wise way the situation of dealing with Jesus in a modern book."

At the next meeting, Miss Donnan will discuss "Xingu" short stories by Edith Wharton; "The Man Against the Sky" by Robinson; and "Nights" by Mary Elizabeth Pennell.

A pitch-in dinner was enjoyed at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith in North Main street yesterday noon when their guests were Mr. and Mrs. John H. Frazee, Mrs. Fannie O. Smith, and Mrs. Gertrude Conde.

To Have or Not to Have.

"Dear Miss Stewart," your letters read, "Do you believe it necessary for young girls to have chaperons?"

Do I? It depends entirely upon the young girl, the affair she is attending, and her escort. People look at these things differently than they did years ago, and it is considered permissible for a young girl and her escort to attend the theatre, concert or musical without a chaperon.

In the case of week-ends, large theater parties and other similar social gatherings where a number of people gather, it is always to have some older person in the party to lend dignity.

The presence of a chaperon should not be resented, it seems to me. I have never yet found a kind aunt or my mother in the way during a party. Somehow I always feel more contented when they are about.

Afternoon socials very seldom need a chaperon, unless the guests are very young, as at a children's home of theatre-party. Then it is always deemed necessary to have someone on hand to look after the most demonstrative youngsters.

In these days of greater liberality

when girls are working elbow-to-elbow with men in the business world it seems to me a mere formality to require them to be chaperoned attending a theatre in the evening with a boy friend. This is all a matter of opinion and circumstances, however, and one must be bold to venture a general opinion on the question.

A picnic, yatching or motor party always lacks something without an older woman present, unless all the guests are informal friends of long standing. Besides lending dignity to a gathering a chaperon is usually able to help in seeing that all the guests have an enjoyable time and that nobody is neglected. This is usually a most welcome aid if the gathering is at all large.

Naturally I often have to be chaperoned for the sake of convention. If I were recognized attending any kind of an evening affair with a gentleman friend and there were no chaperon present, everyone would make it an occasion for comment. You see motion picture stars do have their troubles, though it is very wonderful to have people take enough interest in you to care about what you do.

THE MODERN WAY

The modern housewife does not convert her home into a factory, at least to the extent of making it more of an industrial institution than it is a home. Instead of baking their own bread, thousands of housewives are getting it from the bakery. Likewise, canned goods are not put up in the home, but purchased from the grocer. Clothing is not made in the home, as in the days of your grandmother; it is purchased outside, and delivered to you, ready to wear. Then why not do the logical thing in another case, and send your household linens and washable apparel to a modern power laundry? Washing and ironing are factory processes, that for at least one day in each week render the average home almost uninhabitable. Perhaps you have found this out, and are having all or part of your laundering done in the home of a washerwoman. If you will let us do your laundering, you can rest assured that it is being done under sanitary conditions and in a sanitary manner.

Give us a trial order, and then you will be a regular customer—happy and care free on Monday, as far as laundering is concerned.

IN INDIANA TODAY

Newcastle—Newcastle, Muncie, Richmond and Indianapolis were represented in the opening game of the Indiana Polo league here today.

Richmond—J. L. Townshend, a farmer, was awakened by a burglar alarm in his chicken house. He grabbed a shotgun and ran to the window in time to see the thief running with a chicken in his hand. Townshend shot and killed the chicken, frightened the thief so that he dropped his booty and escaped.

Huntington, Ind.—“Pretty good for a boy of 88, isn't it,” inquired Dr. A. H. Shaffer here when he received a commission as treasurer of Huntington county from Governor Ralston—the ninth commission.

Milton—Linville Wessler killed a snake two and a half feet long with a sugar spile around the center of its body. Apparently the snake had crawled into the spile when it was small. It's body on either side of the spile was about 2 inches in diameter.

HOOSIER BRIEFS.

Wabash—After doing a rushing business in issuing hunting licenses, County Clerk E. E. Roby shoved a hunting permit blank through the window, when a man stepped up and asked for a license. The man started to fill out the application, but handed it back to the clerk saying that he wanted a marriage license.

Huntington—Men of the first Christian church of this city displayed wonderful culinary ability, when they took their turn at the skillets and prepared a banquet for their wives at the church.

Alexandria—Twenty-five cent haircuts have passed into history so fast as Alexandria is concerned. The tonsorial artists here boosted the price to thirty-five cents.

Michigan City—All Dan Hodley needed to open a saloon was a license—he had enough liquor, according to the judge who fined Hodley $1 for being intoxicated.

NEW WAY TO GET DAMAGE.

Gary, Ind., Nov. 27.—Gary police believe they have discovered a new way to make money. An ancient automobile was found standing on the railroad tracks, waiting for a train to come along and knock it into kingdom come. The auto had been stripped of tires and everything else of value and the owner evidently was ready to start his suit for damages.

GRANDMOTHER KNEW

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. You can now get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister. Musterole does it. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin. Just massage Musterole in with the finger tips gently. See how quickly it brings relief—how speedily the pain disappears. Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, rhinitis, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

WOMAN WAS 110 YEARS OLD SUNDAY

Mrs. Narsis Burns, Born When Jefferson Was President Celebrates Birthday

HER ELDEST DAUGHTER IS 89

(By United Press.)
Waxahachie, Tex., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Narsis Burns, born when Thomas Jefferson was president of the United States, celebrated her 110th birth anniversary Sunday. Her three daughters, the eldest of whom is 89, and many of her 110 grand and great-grandchildren will be at the celebration. Mr. Burns died thirty years ago.
Born in Madison county, Tenn., Nov. 26, 1806 and now Mrs. Burns, whose maiden name was Yarbrough, moved to Texas with her father's family at the age of 10. She has lived in the Lone Star State since. Her earliest memories go back to the time of her arrival. She married John Washington Burns, a veteran of the Texas-Mexican and the Mexican war of 46-48. He later fought on the Confederate side in the Civil War.

ELLIS WOOD GOES ON TRIAL

Faces Charge of Killing Walter Collins.

(By United Press.)
Peru, Ind., Nov. 27.—Ellis Wood, charged with the murder of Walter Collins went on trial here today. Change of venue in the case was made from Howard to Miami county on account of the bitter feeling against Wood in his home county. More than 100 witnesses will be called during the trial, which is expected to continue a week.
Wood was indicted for Collins' murder following the finding of the murdered man's body near a lonely road. Both the parents of Wood and Collins attended the opening day of the trial.

CABINET LIKELY TO RESIGN

Neutral Ministry Has Trouble Maintaining its Position

(By United Press.)
Rome, Nov. 27.—Dispatches from Athens today declare that the resignation of the cabinet is imminent.

Messages from Greece during the last few days have impended the dissolution of the cabinet. With the demands made by the allies for disarmament of Greek forces and the revolutionary party established by former Premier Venizelos taking a determined pro-ally stand, the neutral ministry is evidently hard put to maintain its position.
